Did You Know?

The celebration of the New Year is the oldest of all holidays. It was first observed in ancient Babylon about 4000 years ago. They celebrated it in March to coincide with the first day of spring. The Roman Senate changed it to January 1st in 153 BC.

Quotes

People are so worried about what they eat between Christmas & New Years, but they should be worried about what they eat between New Years & Christmas.

Arthur Unknown

May all your troubles last as long as your New Year's resolutions.

Joey Adams

He who breaks a resolution is a weakling; He who makes one is a fool.

Happy New Year

We at the JGI Companies want to thank our clients, vendors & business partners for a great year and to wish them all a prosperous and fulfilling new year. We believe in teamwork and could not have done it without you!!

New Year

To leave the old with a burst of song;
To recall the right and forgive the wrong;
To forget the things that bind you fast
To the vain regrets of the year that's past;
To have the strength to let go your hold
Of the not worth while of the days grown old;
To dare go forth with a purpose true,
To the unknown task of the year that's new;
To help your brother along the road,
To do his work and lift his load;
To add your gift to the work's good cheer,
Is to have and to give a happy New Year.

JGI Salutes our Friends with New Year Toasts

In the New Year, may your right hand always be stretched out in friendship, but never in want.

Here's a toast to the future, a toast to the past, and a toast to our friends, far & near. May the future be pleasant; the past a bright dream; may our friends remain faithful and dear.

A health to you, a wealth to you, and the best that life can give to you.

As you slide down the banisters of life, may the splinters never point the wrong way.

Here's to our friends and the strength to put up with them.

Love to one, friendship to many and good will to all.

May the clouds in your life form only a background for a lovely sunset.

May the friends of our youth be the companions of our old age.

May you live as long as your want, and never want as long as you live.

May your life be as beautiful as a summer day, with just enough clouds to make you appreciate the sunshine.

To better times and a speedy calm to the storms of life.
